

Award winning photos from the 2016 "My View on SDGs" Student Photo Contest.

2017 SDGs Student Photo Contest

The 2017 "Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)" themed photo contest held by the UN encourages students to reflect on what they can do to bring changes to their own surroundings and express them through photos to share with communities around the world. We look forward to seeing your take on the SDGs. Let's make the world a better place.

- Application Period : Thu. 20 April – Wed. 30 August 2017
- Qualifications: Undergraduate, Graduate, or Vocational School Students
- Judges: Leslie Kee (Photographer), Mark Garten (Chief of the UN Photo Unit), etc.
- Awards: one Grand Prize (Japan Foreign Minister's Award), three Award of Excellence, and two special awards (TOGETHER Award and Concept Award)

*Please visit the link on the right for more information.

<http://gtty.im/2sTKZpe>